Health Corner

More people die for want of exercise than from overwork; very many more rust out than wear out. Exercise quickens and equalizes the circulation. In idleness the blood does not circulate freely and the changes in the vital fluid, so necessary to health and life, do not take place. The little mouths in the skin, through which the body breathes, become clogged, thus making it impossible to eliminate impurities through that channel. This throws a double burden upon the other excretory organs, and disease is soon produced.

Those who accustom themselves to working in the open air generally have a vigorous circulation. Men or women, young or old, who desire health and would enjoy life, should remember that they cannot have these blessings without a good circulation. Whatever their business or inclinations, they should feel it a religious duty to take as much exercise in the open air as possible.

ANNOUNCEMENTS FROM ACROSS ONTARIO CONFERENCE

Note of Thanks

*On behalf of Mark Johnson,
President of the Seventh-day Adventist Church in Canada*

Thank You for Your Faithfulness

Over the past two years, individuals across the world have experienced loss in one form or another. The loss of employment, the loss of dear ones, and at times the loss of hope.

Yet, the Bible says in Psalm 66:10, 12, "For you, O God, have tested us; you have tried us as silver is tried... We went through fire and through water; yet you have brought us out to a place of abundance."

While circumstances around us have caused much harm, we have witnessed an abundance of resilience and hope in our church members. On behalf of the Seventh-day Adventist Church in Canada, we want to take this opportunity to praise the Lord and thank you for your faithfulness as you have supported God's work, amid all the uncertainty caused by the COVID-19 pandemic. Whether we give much or little, God sees and appreciates the gift and the giver. Your church leaders appreciated your faithfulness, as well.

We pray for our brothers and sisters in faith throughout Canada. And as we pray for protection and grace in this world, we are praying, as well, for the soon return of Jesus. His kingdom will be the solution to the uncertainty we face at times. There is a better day ahead!
