FAMILY MINISTRIES DEPARTMENT REPORT

PARENT CHILD INTERACTION

The key principles of parenting, as expressed by SDA Family Ministries, are:

- Children are a gift from God. Children are viewed as precious gifts entrusted to parents, the family, and the church. The ultimate goal of parenting is to help a child develop their own loving relationship with Jesus Christ.
- Emphasize loving, redemptive correction. The church advocates for a redemptive approach to correction that avoids harsh, dictatorial punishment, which can lead to resentment and rebellion. Instead, it promotes gentle forms of discipline that use reasoning and allow children to experience the logical consequences of their choices.
 - High warmth and support: Parents should be responsive to their children's needs and show affection through kindness, cuddling, and verbal affirmations.
 - High control and guidance: Parents must set clear, consistent limits and enforce them firmly but lovingly. They teach children to reason and make age-appropriate decisions.
- The home as a center of discipleship. The home is the most important mission field, and parents bear the primary responsibility for their children's spiritual development.
 - This includes modeling the Christian life, holding family worships, and having open, frequent conversations about spiritual truths.
 - According to SDA founder Ellen G. White, "the well-being of society, the success of the church, the prosperity of the nation, depend upon home influences".

Where Do My Offerings Go?

13th Sabbath Offering

You've heard how everyone in an Amish community comes together for a barn raising. Well, Seventh-day Adventists also have projects where we all pitch in to accomplish a goal. That is the purpose of the 13th Sabbath offering. Every 13th Sabbath, the church focuses on one of its world Divisions to accomplish a mission goal. The offering often goes toward constructing a building that will be used for education, evangelism, or media outreach. The 13th Sabbath offerings have been used to establish schools such as Central Philippine Adventist College. A recent offering made a youth camp possible in Belize. All the church members around the world join hands in these projects through sacrificial giving.

In 1913, the 13th Sabbath overflow amounted to $474. Now, it exceeds a quarter of a million dollars. We call it an overflow offering because it encourages extra giving beyond the usual mission offering. In practice, 25 percent of the 13th Sabbath offering is considered overflow. The rest is more broadly distributed to continue mission work around the globe. You can also give a 13th Sabbath offering anytime by marking it on your tithe envelope. Do you want to be part of something big? You'll be part of a worldwide community expanding Adventist mission work when you give to the 13th Sabbath offering.

Remember: Our giving funds the mission to finish the work.
